As a result of sensational disclosures at a private investigation which has been going on for weeks in the office of the District-Attorney, Mr. Jerome late this afternoon caused the arrest of Benjamin M. Goldburger, a clerk in the City Register's office, on the charge of forgery in the third degree.

When Goldburger was arraigned in Centre Street Court Mr. Jerome declared that from fifteen to forty per cent of the names appearing on the positions of the Municipal Ownership ticket headed by William Randolph Hearst last November were rank forgeries.
